

QATAR

Sheraton Hotel in West Bay district of Doha

The pearl monument in Doha, Qatar

Doha Tower

Doha Tower with other tower

Doha is the capital of Qatar.
It is located on the Persian Gulf.
Qatar is known for its wealth.
Qatar became even richer after the World Cup .

Riyal Qatari Doha Tower is located in Burj Doha.
It is 238 meters.
There are 46 floors.
The monument ends with a spade.

Flag of Qatar

Shops in Souq Waqif

The fountain of Aspire Park

Souq Waqif, Doha with umbrellas in height

Al Koot Fort with camels

Qatar is not a very touristic.

Westerner tourists remain rare and the French are a minority. You could say that Doha is split in two. On one side, there is the old city with low buildings (most of them without floor), it is quite captivating, and on the other the modern city mainly composed of buildings of several dozen floors.

Qatari specialties

They have specialties such as "saloona au walin" with meat of all kinds, vegetables (carrots, potatoes, ec) it's a stew.

There is also "madrouba with esain coffe" made with rice, milk, butter, cardamom and chicken (sometimes beans).

"Kousa mhshi" a zucchini with sliced lamb and vegetables and flavored with parsley and mint.

Kousa MSHI a zucchini

Kousa MSHI a zucchini with minced lamb and vegetables and flavored with parsley and mint.

Khanfaroosh cookies

Khanfaroosh cookies made from saffron rose water that are fried with a drizzle of honey and sprinkled with on.

Oum Ali, pudding

Oum Ali, pudding from Qatar This recipe can be made with puff pastry, croissants. It can be garnished with different dried fruits: almonds, walnuts, coconut etc... This dessert is served hot.

Qatar National Convention Center is one of the main convention centers. The monument has several lecture halls and meeting hall theaters.

A parade taking place in Doha

Flag of Qatar

A parade next to a car

Celebrations

Qatar National Day is a national celebration of the unification of the country in 1878. It features fireworks show, where there are music, lights and fireworks. And it offers activities and marching bands.

Katara National Day Ceremony: Heritage-themed festivities take place in the Katara Cultural Village.

National Day Parade, is called Founder's Da.